

Dear Team

A scan of the Consultation appears to omit Rural Exception sites which seems to me to be a lost opportunity. See attached.

Perhaps local landowners who cannot build on the green belt would be willing to release land as a rural exception site, at a reasonable price. This being in the Neighbourhood Plan could encourage this with a Land Trust being formed by the local community to look after such properties.

Regards

Carol Gregorious

Carol A. Gregorious (Mrs)